

Latest Telegraphic Brevities.

dispatch from Madrid says General Vigorosa and Liguine will certainly fight due.

Another sugar fraud case in New Orleans numbering 855 houses, has been decided in favor of the Government.

Richmond had snow yesterday.

Philadelphia police made a raid on gambling houses last night, and captured a great deal of property.

A clopping party from Springfield, were captured in New York yesterday by the father of the bride, Thomas Reuter, took them to the police, leaving the bride and her maid in the lurch.

Theodore Nicholas, convicted last week Little Valley, N. Y., of the murder of Mead, has been sentenced to be hanged.

There appears to be some foundation for the rumors of fraud on the New York Jersey, treasury, the forgery of an author's signature to a check for a large amount having been discovered.

Wm. Orton, president of the Western Union telegraph, arrived at New York yesterday from Europe.

By the burning of a cabinet shop at Fonghtkepile, New York, yesterday, a man named Meyer lost his life, and two houses were burned.

The Chicago Tribune contains an article on the losses sustained by the grain-growers and farmers during the past year. It says they have found partial compensation in the raised price realized from hogs, the profits from that source having saved them from bankruptcy.

During an affray at Rochester, N. Y. Saturday night, between several young men, Clinton Crosswell was stabbed through the chest, fatally it is feared. All the parties were arrested.

Telegraphic Summary.

A convention of conductors of Conservative newspapers is called to meet in Orleans on the 98th instant.

ROBERT B. KINLEY, proprietor of Kinley's

A SLIGHT shock of an earthquake was felt at San Francisco and vicinity on Saturday last.

THE branch mint at Carson City, Nev. commenced operations on Saturday—issuing only silver dollars.

THE burial with Masonic rites of the George D. Prentice took place yesterday at the cemetery, near Louisville, Ky.

CHANCE ARDREWS left New York for London Saturday afternoon. A silly campaign against an attempted assassination was published in the N. Y. News on Saturday.

Mrs. EASTMAN, matron of the Troy Orphan Asylum, died in Troy Saturday. The wife of Hon. John Wentworth also died in the same city Saturday.

THREE fires occurred in Philadelphia Saturday, two were of a trifling nature, the third resulted in the total destruction of Wallace's planing-mill, on Spring Garden street.

A terrific storm prevailed on Hat on Friday, and four marino disasters reported. Several men are known to have been lost, and it is feared that the extent of the loss of men and vessels yet known.

TRUCKEE is threatened at the Ely Mines, Nevada. Parties having "jurisdiction" over the Roche mine, a company of armed men have been sent to dispossess them. It is reported that the Mormons have taken

The remaining million and a half of the Denver and Pacific railroad bonds were sold in London on the 3d inst. The sale was reported by a cable telegram Saturday in Denver, Colorado, and caused great excitement. The company promises to complete the road to Denver in four months. The Kansas, Pacific railroad is progressing at the rate of one mile per day.

The Louisville Courier-Journal of day publishes the circumstances at the attempt to remove General Thomas by General Grant before the battle of Vicksburg. General Halleck disclaims having intended to subject at a dinner in San Francisco last summer, but admits having asked General Grant's orders removing Thomas and appointing General Schofield his successor.

Peabody, which is to take place on Tuesday, at 11 o'clock. Sacred music, by choir under Prof. Willcox; reading of rare lessons by a church of Georgetown; address by Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, president of the Peabody educational fund; by the Rev. Prof. Barbour, formerly of the Congregational church in Falmouth.

The Red River New Nation gives extended account of a meeting held at Garry on January 1st, which was ad-

Mr. Hill moved that twenty representatives be elected by the English of Red River, to meet twenty representatives elected by the French population, on instant, at the court house, for the purpose of considering the subject of establishing a legislature, and to decide what would be the best course for the welfare of the same. The motion was carried. A committee was then appointed to apportion the representatives. The result is not known.

Foreign Intelligence.

Extraordinary scenes are occurring at telegraph offices throughout England. Dissatisfaction is universal, and complaints of delay and error have been greatly multiplied since the new arrangements went into effect. In London, particularly, the people surround the offices and threaten the utmost confusion.

Meetings in favor of the abolition of the University test are being held in

The English manufacturers are preparing to take advantage of the expiration of Bessemer's steel patents. There has recently been an improvement for American bonds, both Federal and State in London. The Saturday Review predicts a serious Irish land question and the bills for the ballot and for the diffusion of education, will engross the attention of the Government at the coming session. The Pall Mall Gazette protests against the proposed extension of the franchise to the working classes.

It is reported that Lucien Anatol Faradot, the celebrated author, has pointed Minister from France to W. ton.

Two houses fell in Marseilles on morning last, burying twelve persons.

It is reported that the Duke of Sier's candidature for the throne of is altogether abandoned. Prince Catholic, 37 years of age.

The clerical estimates passed the Cortes Friday afternoon after a sharp opposition.

The Archbishop of Turin celebrated and five of the fathers delivered at the session of the Ecumenical Council Friday. The Committee on Postulants met once a week. The Committee on the Holy Spirit has completed a great part of its work.

The Chetico Catolica, published in 1890, has a remarkable article entitled "Les vices politiques et le concile." After pointing out the abuses against the Second Council establishing decrees contrary to modern ideas, it says: "The bishops threaten. If Governments make laws contrary with the decrees of the council, the subjects will not be held to them, and to exact obedience to them would be odious tyranny. If Government separate Church from State, they seek terrible revolutions to overturn the Church."

up 10 | France alone has been true to the
and the Council will bear this in m